Location/Council District: Citywide

Recommendation:

Receive and file.

Contact: Jim Henley, Manager, 264-7072
Presenters: Gregory Voelm
Department: Convention, Culture and Leisure Department
Division: History and Science
Organization No: 4251

Summary:

This report provides a brief introduction to the Sacramento Commission of History and Science and its plans for the future. Gregory Voelm, Chairperson of the Commission, will provide a verbal update to the City Council.

Committee/Commission Action:

None.

Background Information:

The Sacramento Commission of History and Science, in its current form was established by ordinance of both the City and the County of Sacramento in 1990, but earlier configurations of the Commission began in 1953. The Commission has identified landmarks, supported the realistic development of Old Sacramento and has coordinated the work of key community historical neighborhood workshops both within the City and in the unincorporated County.

The current goal is to work with the City and the County to recommend historic sites for the placement of historic monuments or kiosks of interest to residents and visitors to the region. Attachment A provides a current Commission roster.

Financial Considerations:

None. The Sacramento Commission of History and Science is a non-profit Commission that receives no financial support from either the City or the County of Sacramento.

Environmental Considerations:

None.

Policy Considerations:

The Core Values of the City of Sacramento's Strategic Plan emphasize community participation and input. The Sacramento Commission of History and Science is a valued part of our community. The History and Science Division encourages and values the Commission's contributions, input and involvement.
