Project Summary

Briefly summarize your proposal here. Describe the programs or project for which this grant is being requested. (Maximum 250 words)

The Capital Film Arts Alliance (CFAA) presents 'Creative Interpretations: The Film Trailer Project' -- A movie TRAILER has an important purpose and is a vital element to attracting viewers to any film. It should provoke emotions, inform and intrigue, and invoke a reaction of interest from a preview audience in a matter of a few minutes. The CFAA has developed this creative film trailer making contest (and screening event) in order to incorporate talents and showcase work from local writers, directors, cinematographers, editors, composers and actors and post an important challenge to them.

A call for entries will be posted. Entrants will then be assigned, at random, the genre/style which will determine the nature of their film trailer project, i.e., Romance, Thriller, Drama, Documentary, etc.

Entrants will have a deadline for completing their 'film trailer' and a running time limit of five minutes. A panel of experts will then judge the entries, determining the winner based upon five forms of criteria.

Prize money will be awarded to the top three winning trailers in the amounts of $500, $300 and $200. All entrants satisfying the entry requirements with their submissions will also have their trailers screened at this event.

The completed films will be screened at a public event at The Crest Theater.
