Project Summary

Briefly summarize your proposal here. Describe the programs or project for which this grant is being requested. (Maximum 250 words)

This project is the presentation of an original musical theatre performance piece called "The Cobra and the Hare". The story is about a family of land developing ghouls who are involved in unscrupulous practices to gain control of farm land shared by a yoga teacher, her students and her beloved cow. The land developers want the land to make a shopping mall, but the yoga farm owner refuses to sell out. To achieve their goal, the ghouls "up the ante" and end up paying the ultimate price. In the middle of all the twists and turns, at least one romance develops. The work is over 90% music, an original mix of rock n roll, jazz, Middle Eastern influences, Southern Gospel and sound collages. The story invites a deeper interpretation about the folly of greed, right and wrong, and the nature of families.

1/6/08 Update: The Cobra and the Hare will be presented at the Ooley Theatre located at 2007 28th Street, in Midtown Sacramento. It is anticipated that the show series will open on Friday, April 11th, 08; and, and will be presented through Saturday, April, 26th, 08. At least seven performances are planned for the Ooley Theatre during April 08.

Revised Project Timeline:

January 08: Secure commitment from theater, present timeline plans and rehearsal schedule to the Collective, finalize rewrites to script, begin creation of new songs and set design.

February 08: Hold auditions as needed, finalize performance personnel and staff support list, start rehearsals, introduce new songs, begin construction of the set and props.

March 08: Continue rehearsals, procure costumes, continue with set and prop construction, launch publicity/advertising plans.

April 08: Final rehearsals in Ooley Theatre. Performance begins Friday 4/11/08.

May 08: Evaluate project, organize all records and receipts, complete project requirements for SMAC; and, provide project summary to all concerned.
