Project Summary

Briefly summarize your proposal here. Describe the programs or project for which this grant is being requested. (Maximum 250 words)

The Ohana Dance Group (ODG) proposes hosting two Hawaiian Slack Key Guitar Concerts, featuring Kevin and Ikaika Brown from Maui, Hawaii, who are recording artists who play the slack key guitar. Along with the Browns' music and singing, the concerts will be enhanced by the ODG's dancing the hula to the Browns' live music.

The ODG recognizes that such concerts are often beyond the financial means of many lower-income and minority families. The ODG proposes holding the concerts on one weekend in October 2008, one for such families in the South Sacramento area at no cost. One hears much about crime and lower-performing schools in the South Sacramento area, and it is to this population that we wish to reach out. The other concert would be held for the general public for an affordable fee, possibly in the Central or East Sacramento areas.

Our goal is to share our Hawaiian music, culture, and dance and to stress the importance of cultural pride and identity. The sharing of another's cultural music, songs and dances is important in a multi-ethnic, culturally diverse city as Sacramento is. It is through such cultural sharing and education that acceptance of each others' differences can be achieved.

The project timeline is as follows:

1/08 secured sound person and opening act commitments; confirm date with artists
2/08 explore facilities; make venue selections; establish committee;
3/08 work with graphic artist; begin teaching dances to ODG; set practice schedule;
4/12/08 attend 'Ohana Brown concert on Maui: secure travel arrangements; e-mail progress report;
6/08-8/08 on-line and free advertising; update website; distribute flyers; ticket logistics; evaluation handout; solicit donations; e-mail progress report;
9/08 final arrangements; ticket sales; work with radio stations that play Hawaiian music for event
announcements; notify and provide tickets to SMAC;
10/08 concert; outcome discussion;
11/08-12/08 financial accountability; report development.
