Project Summary

Briefly summarize your proposal here. Describe the programs or project for which this grant is being requested. (Maximum 250 words)

Pompsicle is a figure drawing group that meets once a week at the Coolcat gallery in Midtown Sacramento. The focus of the group is drawing from clothed/costumed models. Costumes can vary from space cowgirls to zombies to roller derby divas. It has been meeting for over a year and is frequented by a revolving mixture of Sacramento artists.

We would like to produce a hardcover book that shows the breadth of artistic talent that attends this weekly event. This book will showcase young talent in the Sacramento area all focused on a certain model or theme. We plan to market and sell this book in accordance with our individual and collective art openings, web sites, and functions.

Revised Project Timeline:

3-30-08

Initial planning for book will be completed. This includes deciding on the length, style, and size of book as well as the online self publishing site we will use. We will also have determined the specifics of what will be included and possibly have initial rough draft of any text. Jobs will also be assigned between myself and Ben Walker. By this time we also hope to have reserved a gallery or space for a second saturday opening to release the book.

4-15-08

final deadline to Pompsicle artists to submit work they want included in the book. Actual layout of book will begin.

9-31-08

Layout and design of book completed and submitted to publisher. Also, planning for the actual book party will begin. Assignment of jobs to curate show, handle entertainment, and promote show.

11-8-08

Preferred Second saturday opening date and book release party. However, depending on availability we may have to choose a different date.
