

Youth of the Month Award

Molly Rose Hitchings

Congratulations, you have been selected as the City of Sacramento Youth of the Month for June 2009. This prestigious award is only given to one outstanding youth in Sacramento each month. The selection process was competitive and youth members of the Sacramento Youth Commission enthusiastically selected you as the award recipient.

The Youth of the Month Program is designed to highlight good deeds and accomplishments of youth in the City of Sacramento. Your award will be presented at a Sacramento City Council Meeting and a story about why you were selected will be featured on Fox40 News. You will also receive a plaque, a $200 award and be invited to attend an annual dinner of all awardees to be hosted by the Sacramento City Council.

The award judges were very impressed with your community service and your voluntary contributions to your community, school, and giving of yourself to support others. They were also impressed with how you have maintained a 4.0 GPA while being responsible for planning your school dances, participating in school government and founding Sole Patrol.

We admire your efforts to remain true to your character by being honest, respectful, and humble.
