

Youth of the Month Award

Gabriela Munoz

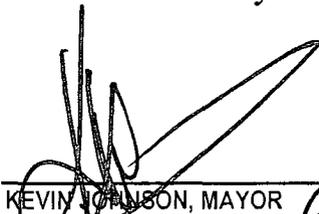

Congratulations, you have been selected as the City of Sacramento Youth of the Month. This prestigious award is only given to one outstanding youth in Sacramento each month. The selection process was competitive and the City of Sacramento Youth Commission and City staff members enthusiastically selected you as the award recipient.

The Youth of the Month Program is designed to highlight good deeds and accomplishments of youth in the City of Sacramento. Your award will be presented at a Sacramento City Council Meeting. You will also receive a plaque, a $200 award and be invited to attend an annual dinner of all awardees to be hosted by the Sacramento City Council.

The Youth Commission and City staff review panel were impressed with your dedication to excellence in academics, school athletics, and community service. Your hard work in the classroom earned recognition on the honor role, and the leadership you demonstrate on the cheerleading squad at school serves to inspire your peers. In addition, our panel admired that you also help out your family by assisting your mother at her place of employment.

Remarkably, you still find time to give back to your community. Your participation as a peer mentor in the Friends for the Future Peer Mentoring Program has a positive impact on the youth you work with. You are also a role model to the students you tutor in Club Pride at Rosa Parks Middle School, where you volunteer regularly.

We admire your commitment to excellence in so many areas. Congratulations!
