Michael Harris blackagriculture@yahoo.com P.O. Box 5071 District 7 Sacramento CA	Thursday, September 9, 2010 is the 160th Anniversary of California Statehood, Admission's Day. John Sutter and his real estate broker, first California Governor Peter Burnett were leaders during the California Constitution Convention and first California Statewide election. Governor Peter Burnett voiced his desire to export all people of African ancestry out of the			None 9/7/2010

State of California, in his inaugural address.

We thank his neighbor, Daniel and Harriet Blue, who established the first church of African ancestry at the location of today's Railyards @ I Street.

Today, residents of the City of Sacramento can embrace the contributions by people of African ancestry.
