Description/Analysis

Issue: Staff is recommending that 55 grantees receive second year funding under the 2012-14 Cultural Arts Awards (CAA) program. A summary of the program history and information regarding the 2013 CAA applicants are included in the background attachments.

Policy Considerations: It is the mission of the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission (Arts Commission) to advance the community through arts and culture.

Economic Impacts: None

Environmental Considerations: Under the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) guidelines, Title 14, Section 15378(b), continuing administrative activities do not constitute a project and are therefore exempt from CEQA review.

Sustainability: Not applicable.

Commission/Committee Action: At its regularly scheduled meeting on October 15, 2012, the Arts Commission unanimously approved the second year award allocations of the 2013 Cultural Arts Awards.

Rationale for Recommendation: The proposed funding allocation takes into account the submission of a Mid-Cycle Report by each grantee consistent with program requirements. Staff has found all Mid-Cycle reports submitted to be complete and no grantees have been in breach of contract. As such, the grantees retained the rank and score given to them by the panel in 2011.

Financial Considerations: CAA annual grants are renewable for the same amount each year of the cycle, pending availability of funds. The CAA contracts maintain that second and third year funding is contingent on compliance with contract requirements and availability of funding.

CAA funding is awarded on a calendar year basis. Funding for 2013 is part of the City's FY2012/13 approved budget, and $285,676 is budgeted out of Arts Stabilization in the General Fund's non-departmental budget.

Total available funding for the 2013 CAA program is $358,794, encompassing the City's and the County's CAA allocation, along with unused CAA funds from 2011 and 2012 kept at the County. The Friends of the Arts Commission (a private nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization) is contributing $39,000. Staff is recommending:

City approved funding	$ 285,676
County approved funding	$ 25,000
Unused CAA funds from 2011 & 2012	$ 9,118
Friends of SMAC approved funding	$ 39,000
Total Available Funding:	$ 358,794

The contracts for this program, which are between the County and the grantee, make it clear that receiving a third year of funding is contingent on compliance with contract requirements and availability of funding. Funding for year three of the program will be part of the City's FY 2013/14 budget (subject to approval). Award recommendations for year three will be presented to Council in December 2013.

Emerging Small Business Development (ESBD): Not applicable.

BACKGROUND CULTURAL ARTS AWARDS

In recognition of the importance of Sacramento's cultural heritage and to provide opportunities for the public to experience the arts, the Sacramento City Council and County Board of Supervisors make public funds available through the Sacramento Cultural Arts Awards (CAA) program of the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission (Arts Commission).

In keeping with its public mandate, the Arts Commission is fully committed to providing access to a variety of cultural expressions for all of Sacramento County's inhabitants and dedicated to the principles of inclusion, accessibility and diversity. The Arts Commission supports the professional and artistic development of a broad spectrum of artists and arts organizations, arts services, and arts disciplines that reflect the community's demographic, geographic, socio-economic and cultural composition.

Granted through a competitive review process, Cultural Arts Awards assist with partial funding of general operating expenses or project support to nonprofit arts and cultural organizations, government arts agencies, arts service organizations and community organizations with arts programming. Grantees must meet high standards of artistic quality, show evidence of community involvement and outreach and exhibit sound managerial and fiscal accountability. Grant award amounts are based on the review panel's score, an organization's request amount (determined by budget size) and the amount available to re-grant.

The Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission is committed to inclusivity and accessibility. The Arts Commission respects and seeks to achieve diversity in its leadership, partnerships and programs. The Arts Commission is committed to cultural equity.

CAA History:

The Cultural Arts Awards (CAA) program was established as the County Cultural Awards in 1979 with county funding. In 1990-91 City Council began jointly funding the program (Resolution No. 91-321) and renamed it the Sacramento Cultural Arts Awards Program (Resolution 90-996). Since then, the City Council and the Board of Supervisors have approved allocations of combined funds every year to grant to the Sacramento Cultural Arts Awards Program.

In 1999, the City Council and Board of Supervisors approved a plan to make CAA a two-year program (Resolution No. 99-114). In 2005, the Arts Commission received City Council (Resolution No. 2005-920) and Board of Supervisor approval to extend the program to a three year cycle on par with the longer grant cycles that had become the national trend. Organizations are now able to plan on Arts Commission funding for three consecutive years, allowing them greater stability. Grantees welcomed the extension, leaving them more time to manage their organizations, fundraise, market and reach for higher levels of artistic excellence. There is no loss of accountability with the extension, as the program's system of checks and balances remains in place.

In 2009, the City Council and Board of Supervisors approved a one-time, one year extension of the CAA program to encompass 2010 (Resolution No. 2009-755). In 2010, the City Council and Board of Supervisors approved a second one-time, one year extension of the CAA program to encompass 2011 (Resolution No. 2010-694). Grantee award amounts are based on the size of their budgets and their panel score; because of the two extensions to the program, staff re-calculated award amounts to more accurately reflect current grantee budgets.

SMAC opened the CAA grants to new applications from March 1, 2011 through June 9, 2011. Fifty-five organizations received grants in 2012.

Mid-Cycle Report:

Grant awards in the second and third years are conditional on submission of a Mid-Cycle Report. The Mid-Cycle Report is used by Arts Commission staff to determine whether a grantee should receive funding in the coming year. If a grantee does not receive funding in one year of the cycle, they are not eligible for funding in subsequent years of that cycle.

Staff analyzes the Mid-Cycle Reports to ensure contract compliance, identify general trends among the grantees, and to design initiatives to address their needs in terms of organizational development where possible. The report details fund utilization, program activities, the current fiscal and organizational health of the organization and artistic and administrative changes in the grant year. Arts Commission staff also conducts site visits throughout the year to assess the health of an organization as needed. Staff has been able to assist several organizations with a variety of technical assistance based on these reporting practices.

CAA Funding - Fundraisers

For the first time in its history, the 2012 Cultural Arts Award (CAA) re-granting amount was supplemented by private funds. As the public mechanism to support the arts and culture in Sacramento, the CAA has historically been funded solely from City and County Transit Occupancy Tax (TOT) dollars. In order to increase contributions to the CAA grantees and account for City and County budget reductions, Friends of SMAC coordinated with members of the private sector to secure an additional $39,000 in funding for 2013. Friends of SMAC is a nonprofit 501 (c) 3 organization.

CAA Funding History:

Although eligible funding requests have totaled over $1.3 million for the new cycle, available funding for 2012 is $310,676 from the City and County. The graph below shows the City and County contributions to CAA since 1990.

BENEFIT OF THE ARTS TO THE CITY OF SACRAMENTO

Using data collected from 2012-14 CAA grantees, this report illustrates the economic impact on the City from the grants that are awarded through the Sacramento Metropolitan Arts Commission.

The City of Sacramento is home to many diverse arts organizations using a number of venues located downtown, midtown, and throughout the City. These organizations and the venues they use benefit the city by drawing a collective, annual audience numbering in the hundreds of thousands – an audience that brings business to the City’s restaurants, hotels and parking facilities, as well as visits other Sacramento amenities. It is estimated that 3,054 full time equivalent jobs in our community are supported by the expenditures made by arts and cultural organizations and/or its audiences.

The City contributed $285,676 to the CAA program in 2012. The CAA grantees located within the City limits have, in turn, leveraged these funds within their $47.6million organizational expenditures in 2011 alone. As suggested by their line item expenditures, most of this money is paid to local businesses for products and services that support the presentation – and enjoyment – of the organizations’ programming.

There are fifty-five organizations that receive funding every year from the 2012-14 CAA grant. It is estimated, according to the Economic Prosperity Calculator published by Americans for the Arts (AFTA), that the total impact of 55 arts organizations and their audiences is $72.8 million on area household incomes and $4.7 million on local government (e.g. license fees, taxes) through their expenditures every year.

Of the 55 organizations funded through the current 2012-14 cycle, 75% use at least one venue located within Sacramento city limits. This includes City-operated venues such as the Community Center Theater and the Memorial Auditorium, enabling the City to earn revenue. Other City venues such as Old Sacramento are also often utilized, bringing further revenue to the City. The 2012-14 CAA grantees using venues located within the City together account for nearly 80% of the program's proposed award funds. Seventy-nine percent of the CAA grantees have offices within the City.

CAA grantee events taking place in venues located within the City draw an annual attendance of approximately 1.98 million people, including citizens of Sacramento, its surrounding communities and travelers visiting Sacramento. According to AFTA's Economic Prosperity Calculator, these audiences draw an additional $43.5 million annually to businesses surrounding arts venues. This money typically goes toward such expenses as dining, parking, and lodging; and supports 1237 full time jobs per year.
