Message	I attended one of these meetings and I was extremely disappointed. It doesn't suprise me since they are at the mercy of the members of the city council who appointed them. I heard that these members are all personal friends of the members and that is why they were given the positions. Why is Mr. Edgar even involved in this? I saw an articiel in the paper that they recommend no changes. Did you think they would come to any other conclusion. I asked why they did not propose term limits on the mayor or council and they responded that it was not a priority for the members of the council. I guess that is why we have jackasses like Robbie Waters and Steve Cohn running for 5th terms and Sandy Sheedy running for a fourth term in 2012. None of these members have the guts to put it on the ballot for the people to vote it up or down but then they have no problem putting tax increases like a text tax on there. What a damn joke and people wonder why voters are so disinfranchised with the political system. I would like a response back on this but my guess is it will never happen. My council member doesn't even have her e-mail address on her sebsite. Is that becasue she is afraid of dissenting opinion?
