

Resolution

of the City Council

Recognizing the League of Sacramento Theatres

WHEREAS, the League of Sacramento Theatres is a nonprofit organization established in 1998 to unite, strengthen and advance theater in the greater Sacramento region; and

WHEREAS, the League has more than 40 members consisting of professional, community and educational theatres and theater artists; and

WHEREAS, the League of Sacramento Theatres is committed to fostering quality theatre, promoting community interest in theatre arts, and supporting the development of live theatre in the Sacramento region; and

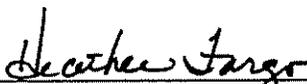

WHEREAS, the League of Sacramento Theatres has increased visibility and accessibility of live theatrical events in the region through the establishment of the www.Seeaplay.com website; and

WHEREAS, now more than ever, theater in Sacramento is a part of the fabric of the city's cultural life and audiences today support more than five professional theatres, dozens of community theaters', and the theatre programs of two major universities and four community colleges; and

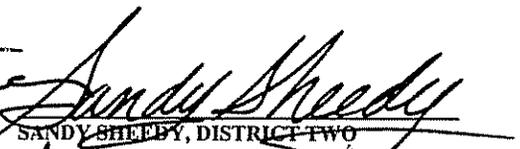

WHEREAS, to celebrate the beginning of the theatre season, recognize the growth of theatre in Sacramento, and promote live theatre to a greater audience, the City of Sacramento and the League of Sacramento Theatres recognizes the month of October as Live Theatre Month.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and Council of the City of Sacramento, that we do hereby congratulate the League of Sacramento Theatres and its 45 members on developing a vibrant and dynamic theatre scene for Sacramento and the surrounding communities.

ISSUED: This 10th Day of October 2006.
