

Gardens at the Center of Community

By Bill Maynard

City of Sacramento Department of Parks and Recreation
Community Garden Program Coordinator

City of Sacramento Department of Parks and Recreation

Southside Community Garden – 5th and W street

45 plots – Full with waiting list of 10

J. Neely Johnson Park – 11th and F Street

10 plots – Full with waiting list of 21

Strauch Park – Northstead and Potomac (Northgate area)

20 plots – Food Project Grower and Gardeners – 8 openings

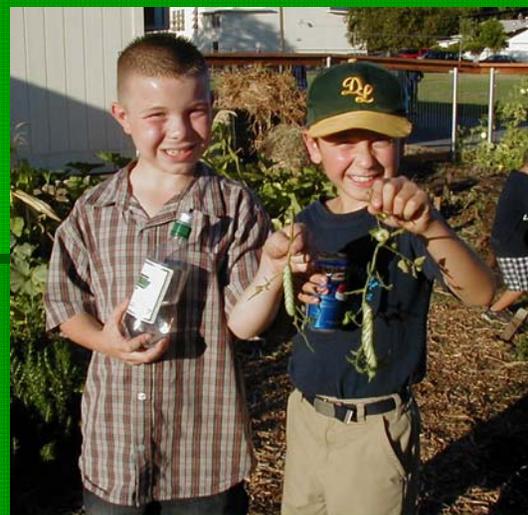

Danny Nunn Park – 53rd at Power Inn Rd. (Lemon Hill area)

20 plots – Full with waiting list

Fremont Community Garden – 14th and Q street

54 plots - Full with waiting list of 12

- All Ages can Participate in Gardening

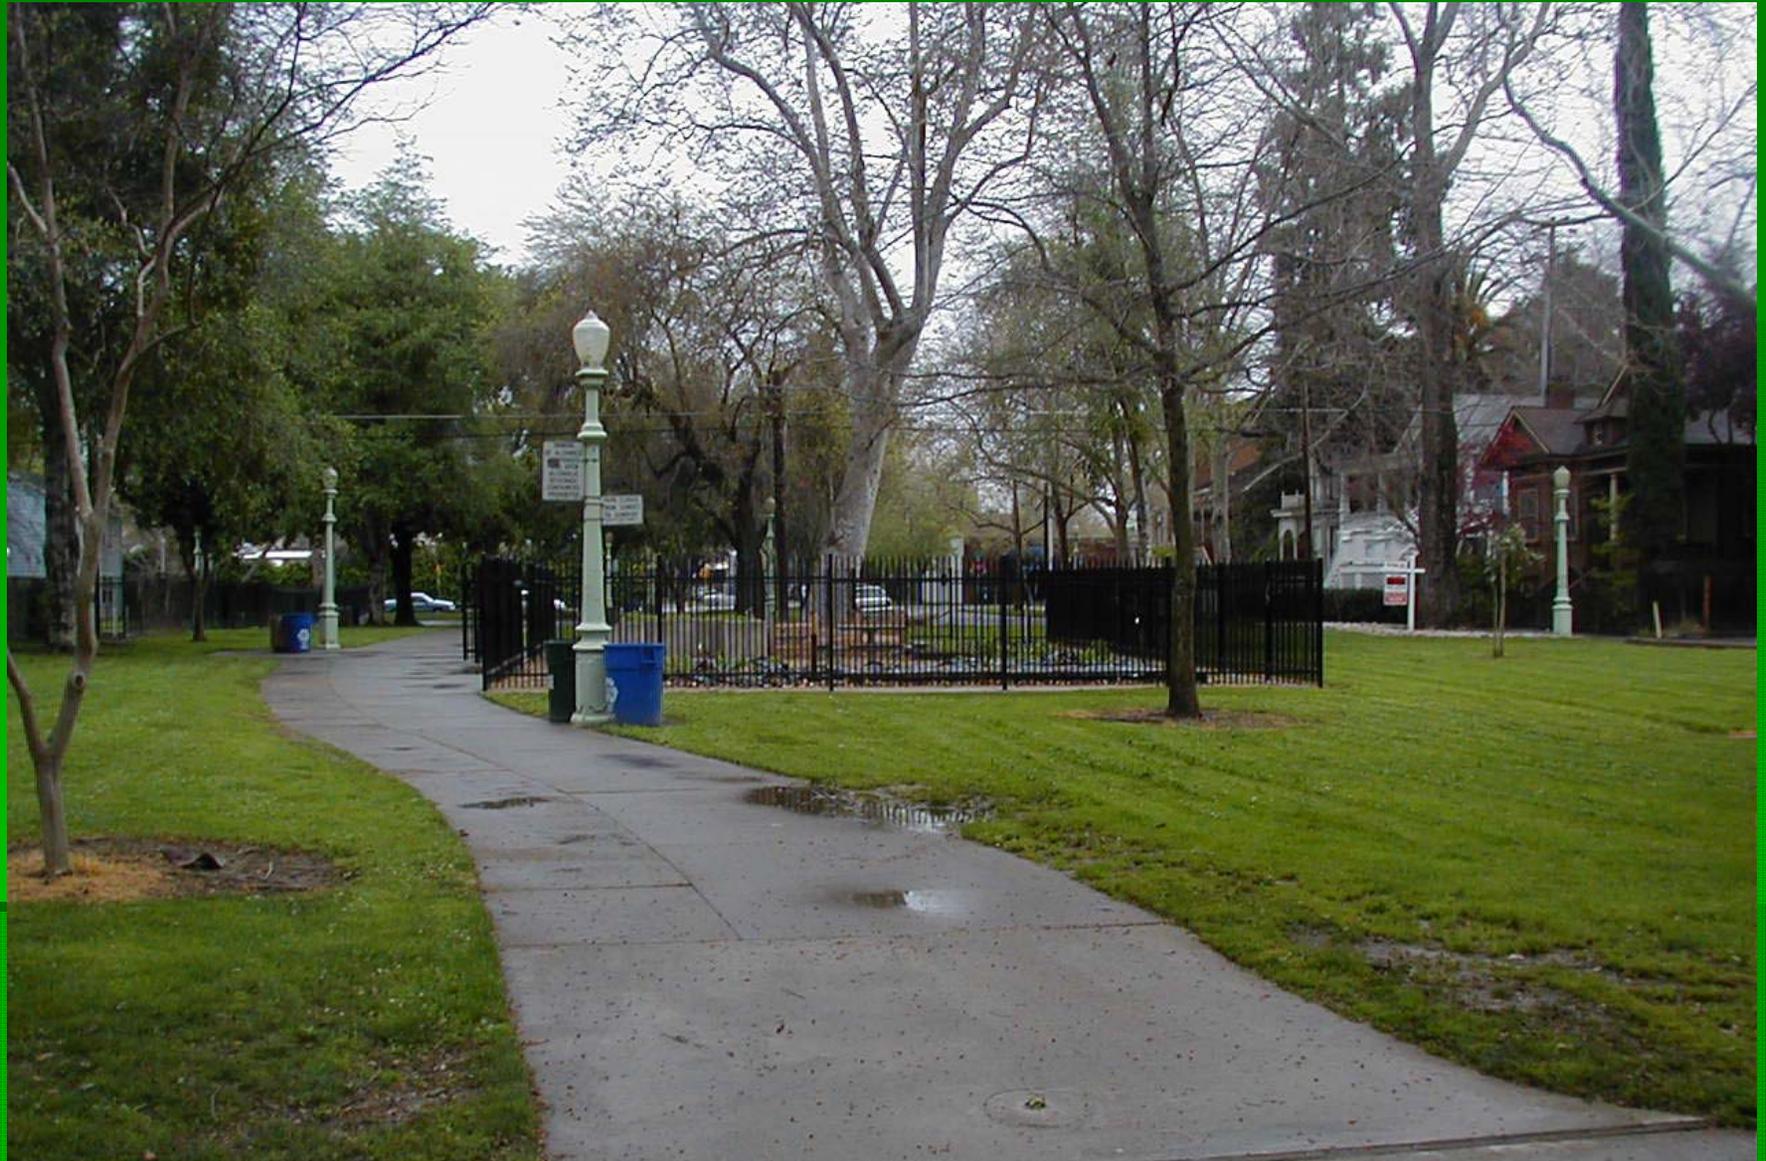

- Community Garden – Building Family Bonds

- Building Community Through Gardening

- Organic Practices are followed
No Pesticides, Herbicides, Fungicides, or Chemical Fertilizers

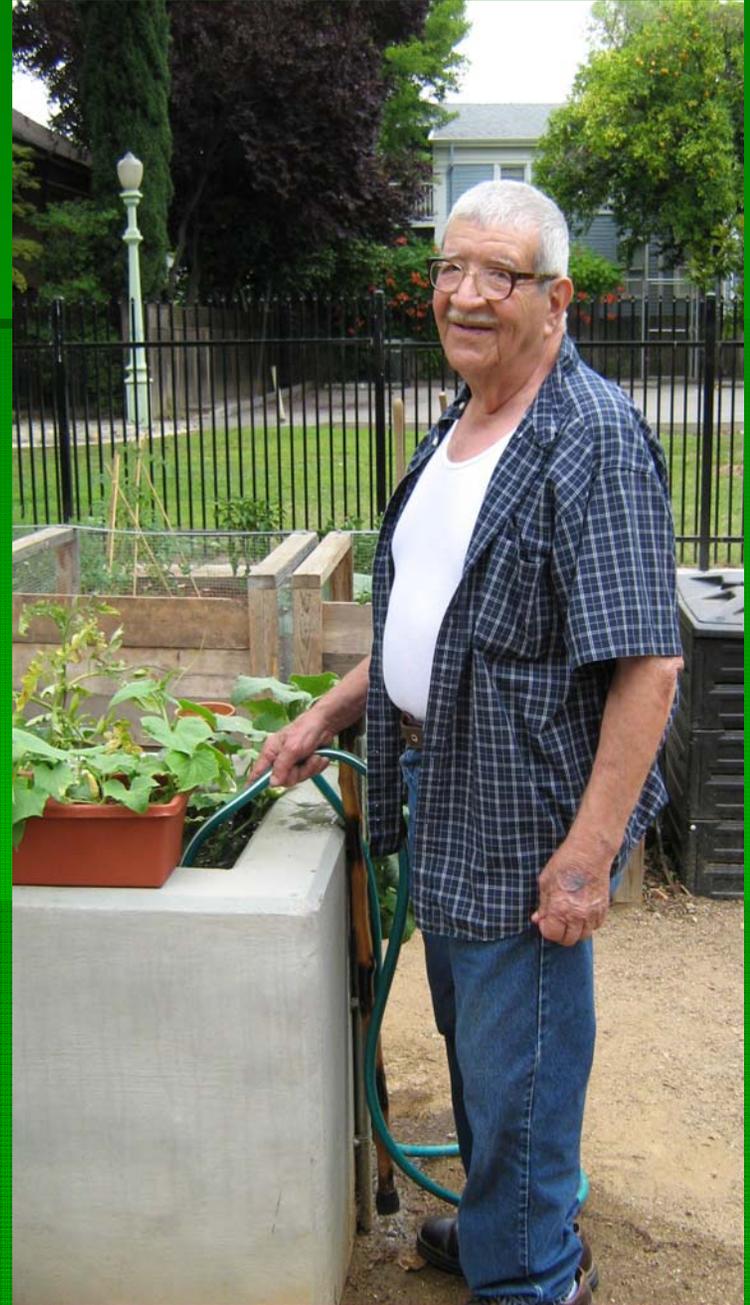

- Community Gardens can be built in Existing Parks
11th and F Street - Sacramento, California

Our Gardeners

Learning New Skills

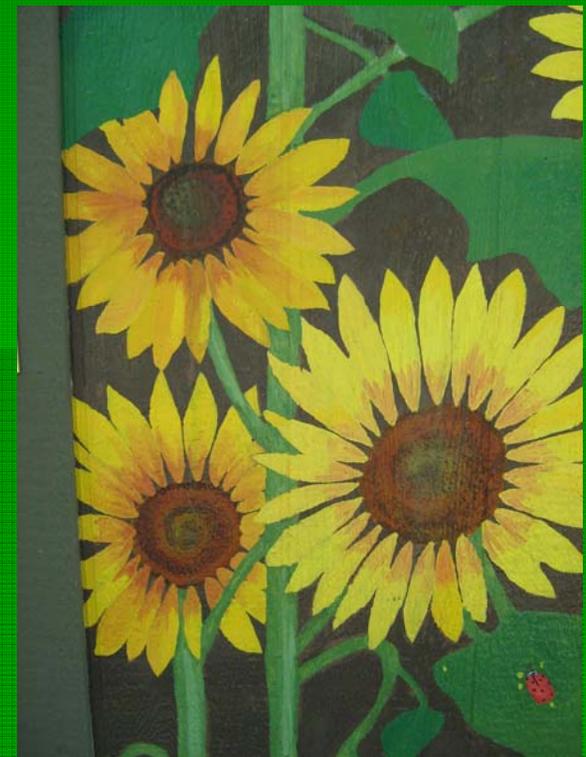

Southside Community Garden Volunteer Opportunities

ART in the Garden

Produce, Flowers, Herbs, and Ornamentals

- New Community Garden Plot Sign Ups

Gardening with Youth Weed & Seed Project

Gardening with Youth Sacramento START

Nutrition Education – (How Veggies Grow, Tasting, Pick and Take)

Community Food Projects

Del Paso Heights Farmers Market – FEED Project

For More Information:

City of Sacramento
Department of Parks and Recreation

Community Garden Program

Bill Maynard

(916) 808-4943

wmaynard@cityofsacramento.org

